It is time to vote!

November 3rd is election day. There are many resources to help you prepare to vote.

To find out what is being voted on, and where your voting location is you can visit https://ballotpedia.org/Maine_elections,_2020

Ballotpedia provides an overview to the Maine 2020 elections. Simply type in your address and it will show you who the candidates are in your area, and an overview of the Ballot Measures that will be on the ballot.

Current representatives can be found at http://legislature.maine.gov/house/townlist.htm
If your city or town is split into a district you can search by your address for your current representative by using the Maine Voter Information Lookup Service at https://www.maine.gov/portal/government/edemocracy/voter_lookup.php This shows you which voting district you are in, your voting location, and a sample ballot.

You may also request an absentee ballot from your town or city by contacting them.

Disability Rights Maine has also put together some great information about your voting rights. This can be found here: https://drme.org/voting

The Maine League of Women Voters has a voting guide on its website. It includes information on Ranked Choice Voting, and candidates that are running for election: https://www.lwvme.org/elections
